

shirt with its various stitches, which rests loosely and softly at the arm, is certainly a wonderfully fine specimen of this kind of work. Pulling in luxurious folds, fastened with a hand-embroidered, the massive figure is enveloped in drapery, while cascades of doves, eagles, and precious stones ornament the imperial mantle.

The "Germania" was cast at Miller's celebrated foundry at Dresden; the Raimond group at Bierling's at Dresden; the flags and arms of the confederated States at the casting works in Lanchhammer. Also at Lanchhammer two smaller plates were cast, portraying the soldier's departure from home and his return. The statue of Mars was erected by voluntary subscriptions of the many veterans' associations; the statue of "Peace" by the subscriptions of the college students and pupils of the art academies and of other schools. The great relief was presented by the numerous singing societies.

PHASES OF IRISH CRIMES.

MR. PARNELL SHOT AND WOUNDED.
A BULLET SAID TO HAVE PASSED THROUGH HIS BODY—EXCITEMENT IN DUBLIN.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The Daily Chronicle has issued a postscript stating that there is great excitement in Dublin owing to a rumor that Orangemen have shot Mr. Parnell. There appears to be some truth in the report. At any rate it is certain that Mr. Parnell is wounded. It is stated that the bullet went through his body. Another account says the affair was accidental. No further details have been received.

DISORDERS AT TWO MEETINGS.
MR. O'CONNOR ATTACKED BY ORANGEMEN, BUT NOT INJURED.

DUBLIN, Sept. 27.—A Home Rule meeting held here to-day. The police prevented a collision between the opposing parties. There was no serious rioting, although some disorder occurred and a number of arrests were made. Despite the wet weather the Orange demonstration was very largely attended. All the streets leading to the place of meeting were guarded by police and soldiers. A resolution was passed pledging those present to resist the treasonable aims of the National League, and denouncing the establishment of an ultramontane communist tyranny in Ireland.

The Nationalist meeting adjacent passed resolutions expressing confidence in Mr. Parnell, demanding Home Rule, and claiming that the Land Act is a failure. Messrs. Healy, O'Connor and O'Brien, members of Parliament, were the principal speakers. At the conclusion of the meeting they were escorted to the railway station by a large body of police. Mr. O'Connor was attacked at Portadown, County Armagh, by Orangemen, but escaped unhurt.

SEIZURE OF ARMS AND AMMUNITION.

CORK, Sept. 27.—The police of this city have found 500 cartridges for snider rifles, six bayonets and a revolver, concealed in a yard in Peacock Lane. The revolver has been identified as one that was stolen from a factory during the Fenian outbreak in 1868. The seizure of the arms and ammunition was made through the aid of an informer.

MDERMOTT WANTS POLICE PROTECTION.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 27.—It is stated that James McDermott, who was recently ordered to be discharged from custody, refuses to quit the prison unless police protection is afforded him, as he fears that he will be murdered unless the authorities make provision for his safety.

REPORTED MURDER OF MOTTLEY DENIED.

DUBLIN, Sept. 27.—A letter was received in Dublin on August 2, from Philadelphia, stating that Mottley (who was an important witness in the trials of the Phoenix Park murderers) had been murdered a fortnight previous. The father-in-law of Mottley states that the latter is in Liverpool, and that the report of his murder is untrue.

THE FRANCO-CHINESE TROUBLES.

MOVEMENTS OF THE BLACK FLAGS.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—Advices from French sources, dated Ha-Noi, September 16, state that the Black Flags have abandoned Sontay and the villages of Phung, Logne and Day, and have retired to the left bank of the Red River. Several mandarins have announced their submission to French authority through M. Harmand, the French Civil Commissioner. The French forces will undertake no offensive operations until after the arrival of reinforcements from France. There is no mention made of the reported defeat of the Yellow Flags by the Black Flags.

ALGIERS, Sept. 27.—Two French transports have sailed hence for Tunis with a battalion of the Foreign Legion and two companies of sharpshooters—a total of 2,000 men.

THE TONGKIN QUESTION UNSETTLED.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Paris says that the reply of China to the memorandum of France has been received. Several of the proposals of France have been rejected by China.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—Prime Minister Ferry held conferences yesterday and to-day with the Marquis Tseng, the Chinese Ambassador. The Marquis Tseng, Sept. 27.—The Chinese Ambassador denies that the Chinese reply to the French memorandum has arrived.

CHANGES IN BULGARIA.

ACTION OF TURKEY AND RUSSIA.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 27.—The Porte is preparing a circular to the Powers, declaring that, if Bulgaria lapses into a state of anarchy, Turkey will exercise her right of suzerainty in that country for the restoration of order.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 27.—The Journal de St. Petersburg regards the situation in Bulgaria as dangerous. It is reported that the Russian Government will issue a note to the European Powers taking exception to the recent changes in the government of Bulgaria, by which Prince Alexander removed the Russian Ministers, Generals and Cavalry, and placed M. Zankoff, a Liberal, at the head of his cabinet.

SOFIA, Sept. 27.—The Russian Generals have started for St. Petersburg.

THE ROTTERDAM STRANDED.

THE STEAMER IN A BAD CONDITION.

THE NEWS IN THIS CITY—LIST OF THE PASSENGERS—THE CARGO.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The steamer Rotterdam, of the Netherlands-American Steam Navigation Company, was stranded at Rotterdam to-day in the Benjaard, and lies in a bad condition. The Benjaard, on the coast of Zealand, is a small vessel, and the cause of which the Zeelanders suspect, the Rotterdam lies upon her side.

H. CAZEAU, general passenger agent of the Netherlands-American Line, said last night he had heard nothing from the stranded steamer Rotterdam except the following dispatch from Captain Lucas: "Rotterdam stranded. Passengers landed. Vessel's condition. The Rotterdam sailed from here for Rotterdam on September 12, with the following passengers: William Richter, Ferdinand, William Rotterbohm, Anton Edtmann, Frederick Koff, G. A. Klempner, Julius Schalk, Nicholas Schurzer, John Hornick, Benedette Colozelli, Vincenzo Bigio, Giuseppe A. Fantozzi, Theodore Stock and wife, John Aspell, Daniel Valin, Louis Ludwig Reine, George Schmidt, John Kohl, Michael Kohl, Joseph Hattel, Frank Westhoff, Philip Spitzer, Joseph, and others. The vessel was damaged by a collision with a small boat, and the cause of which the Zeelanders suspect, the Rotterdam lies upon her side.

THE ROTTERDAM STRANDED.

THE STEAMER IN A BAD CONDITION.

THE NEWS IN THIS CITY—LIST OF THE PASSENGERS—THE CARGO.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The steamer Rotterdam, of the Netherlands-American Steam Navigation Company, was stranded at Rotterdam to-day in the Benjaard, and lies in a bad condition. The Benjaard, on the coast of Zealand, is a small vessel, and the cause of which the Zeelanders suspect, the Rotterdam lies upon her side.

H. CAZEAU, general passenger agent of the Netherlands-American Line, said last night he had heard nothing from the stranded steamer Rotterdam except the following dispatch from Captain Lucas: "Rotterdam stranded. Passengers landed. Vessel's condition. The Rotterdam sailed from here for Rotterdam on September 12, with the following passengers: William Richter, Ferdinand, William Rotterbohm, Anton Edtmann, Frederick Koff, G. A. Klempner, Julius Schalk, Nicholas Schurzer, John Hornick, Benedette Colozelli, Vincenzo Bigio, Giuseppe A. Fantozzi, Theodore Stock and wife, John Aspell, Daniel Valin, Louis Ludwig Reine, George Schmidt, John Kohl, Michael Kohl, Joseph Hattel, Frank Westhoff, Philip Spitzer, Joseph, and others. The vessel was damaged by a collision with a small boat, and the cause of which the Zeelanders suspect, the Rotterdam lies upon her side.

THE ROTTERDAM STRANDED.

THE STEAMER IN A BAD CONDITION.

THE NEWS IN THIS CITY—LIST OF THE PASSENGERS—THE CARGO.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The steamer Rotterdam, of the Netherlands-American Steam Navigation Company, was stranded at Rotterdam to-day in the Benjaard, and lies in a bad condition. The Benjaard, on the coast of Zealand, is a small vessel, and the cause of which the Zeelanders suspect, the Rotterdam lies upon her side.

H. CAZEAU, general passenger agent of the Netherlands-American Line, said last night he had heard nothing from the stranded steamer Rotterdam except the following dispatch from Captain Lucas: "Rotterdam stranded. Passengers landed. Vessel's condition. The Rotterdam sailed from here for Rotterdam on September 12, with the following passengers: William Richter, Ferdinand, William Rotterbohm, Anton Edtmann, Frederick Koff, G. A. Klempner, Julius Schalk, Nicholas Schurzer, John Hornick, Benedette Colozelli, Vincenzo Bigio, Giuseppe A. Fantozzi, Theodore Stock and wife, John Aspell, Daniel Valin, Louis Ludwig Reine, George Schmidt, John Kohl, Michael Kohl, Joseph Hattel, Frank Westhoff, Philip Spitzer, Joseph, and others. The vessel was damaged by a collision with a small boat, and the cause of which the Zeelanders suspect, the Rotterdam lies upon her side.

THE ROTTERDAM STRANDED.

THE STEAMER IN A BAD CONDITION.

THE NEWS IN THIS CITY—LIST OF THE PASSENGERS—THE CARGO.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The steamer Rotterdam, of the Netherlands-American Steam Navigation Company, was stranded at Rotterdam to-day in the Benjaard, and lies in a bad condition. The Benjaard, on the coast of Zealand, is a small vessel, and the cause of which the Zeelanders suspect, the Rotterdam lies upon her side.

stranded at the entrance of the River Maas, on a trip from Rotterdam to Rotterdam, and subsequently floated without difficulty. She stranded yesterday in the East Scheldt, on the coast of Zealand about thirty miles from Rotterdam, and she will become a total wreck. The vessel is valued at about $250,000, which is nearly covered by insurance.

MISCELLANEOUS FOREIGN NEWS.

A WELCOME TO MR. SHAW.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—A meeting was held in Exeter Hall this evening, under the auspices of the London Missionary Society, to welcome home Mr. Shaw, the British missionary, who has just returned from Madagascar. Mr. Shaw, in an address, described the ill-treatment he had sustained at the hands of the French officials at Tamatave, and frequent cries of "Shame!" from the audience. He denied that he had been sent for by Earl Granville. He also denied that he had suffered, and said he would leave that to the honor of France.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The Standard's Paris dispatch says that France will not allow Missionary Shaw's claim for compensation, nor will she admit England's right to interfere with the action of the French in Madagascar.

SPAIN, FRANCE AND GERMANY.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—A majority of the newspapers here deprecate the exhibition on the part of the people of anything resembling open resentment, upon the occasion of King Alfonso's arrival here. At His Majesty's acceptance of the colony of a regiment of German Uhlans. The Temps expresses the opinion that Prince Bismarck's intention, by the appointment of King Alfonso to the colony, to prepare a cold reception for the Parisians, by their arrival in France, and urges the city, by their conduct when the King enters the city, to upset these calculations.

HOMING-VOYAGEURS. Sept. 27.—King Alfonso has started for Brussels. The Crown Prince Frederick William and Prince William attended the King to the railway station, bidding him a cordial farewell. King Alfonso thanked them for the warmth of the welcome extended to him during his journey, and expressed the hope that he would soon visit the Emperor of Germany in Spain.

FRANKFORT-ON-MAIN, Sept. 27.—The Emperor William and the Crown Prince Frederick arrived here to-day. They attended the Burgomaster's banquet, at which their healths were drunk with great enthusiasm.

KING ALFONSO IN BRUSSELS.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 27.—King Alfonso arrived here to-day. He was received at the railway station by the King of the Belgians, the members of the diplomatic body, and many other notables. On alighting from the train the royal visitor and King Leopold cordially embraced. Accompanied by a guard of honor they then drove to the palace, where a banquet was given. The streets were lined with throngs of people, and great crowds of people cheered the royal party.

ROUMANIA AND THE ALLIANCE.

VIENNA, Sept. 27.—M. Bratianu, Prime Minister of Roumania, has had a conference with the Emperor Francis Joseph, after having repeated interviews with Count Kalnoky, the Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Prince Henry VII. of Reuss, the German Ambassador here. The latter has returned from Salzburg, where he has been in consultation with Prince Bismarck. M. Bratianu will return to Bucharest to-day. It is generally considered, in view of the above-mentioned conferences, that Roumania's entry into the alliance has been effected.

BRADLAUGH TO DEMAND HIS SEAT AGAIN.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—Mr. Bradlaugh has addressed a letter to Sir Stafford Northcote, in which he declares that he will again demand his seat in the House of Commons on the re-opening of Parliament, and charges Sir Stafford Northcote with causing all the mischief that has arisen out of the continued violation of his (Mr. Bradlaugh's) rights.

REPORTED MURDER OF SULEIMAN PACHA.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The Times Alexandria correspondent says it is reported that Suleiman Pacha, recently appointed Governor of East Sudan, has been murdered by Arabs near Sennar Pass.

A PRODUCE SHIPPER'S FRAUDS.

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—In August last C. J. Dewey, an Englishman, came here from Liverpool and began business as a produce shipper to England. He raised $35,000 from M. J. B. Bank on the strength of bills of lading on shipments of goods. There are fears that the bank will lose the whole amount, as it has been discovered that Dewey has passed forged bills in Boston and New York for advances there to the amount of $20,000. The bank is now endeavoring to produce from New York will probably lose over $20,000. The total amount of the shipper's frauds is after him, and a large reward is offered for his arrest.

FOREIGN NOTES.

GOTTENBERG, Sept. 27.—The Arctic expedition of Professor Nordenskjöld has arrived here.

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—Prince Alexander Sullivan has been appointed one of the Commissioners of the Great Seal of Ireland—not Lord Chancellor, as was previously announced.

PARIS, Sept. 27.—M. Challeme-Lacour is expected to return here to-day, when he will resume the duties of Minister of Foreign Affairs.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The strike of the weavers at Ashton-under-Lyne has been settled, and it is expected that work in the factories will be resumed to-day.

VIENNA, Sept. 27.—Three diplomats have been awarded to American exhibitors in the Electrical Exhibition here.

YALE COLLEGE NOTES.

NEW-HAVEN, Sept. 27.—The Law Department of Yale College opened to-day. Professor Francis Wayland made an address.

Messrs. Parrott and Hall of the University Crew are members of the junior crew, which is to be the Yale crew in the regatta to be held at Lake Umbagog in the latter part of the season.

A dinner to Lord Coleridge.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—The dinner given last night by Emory A. Storrs, in honor of Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, was probably the finest affair of the kind ever given in Chicago, seventy covers being spread. The health of Lord Chief Justice Coleridge was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the Illinois Supreme Court. The health of Mr. Storrs was drunk by the host, Mr. Storrs, and the Lord Chief Justice responded by the toast "The Queen." Other toasts were: "England and America, one in Language, Law and Literature, the Future is Peace," response by Senator John A. Logan; "English and American Journalism as Civilizers and Peace-makers," response by Murray Halstead; "The Commonwealth of the World," response by Judge T. Lyle Dickler, of the